20. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Ken Bass, in the Office of Legal Counsel, Department of Justice, called for background on former Director William Colby's and former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger's meeting with former Chairmen Thomas E. Morgan (D., Pa.), House International Relations Committee, and Edward Hebert (D., La.), House Armed Services Committee, on providing briefings to the House International Relations and Senate Foreign Relations Committees on intelligence activities impacting upon foreign policy. In response to his query, I told him I did not have any knowledge of a Memorandum for the Record written by Mr. Colby, but I did discuss the precursor of this session, what I thought this session had achieved and why, and its relationship to the Bolling/Hansen reform of the House rules leading to special oversight of intelligence activities for the Committees and its relationship to the Hughes/Ryan amendment.
